

Information Security Management Policy

LG Display Co., Ltd. recognizes that information security is an essential element of corporate management and aims to practice the following principles to maintain business continuity and build internal and external trust.

- All the personnel who handle the Company Information shall be responsible for complying with security policies and standards and for actively protecting information.
- The establishment of a sound security culture shall be facilitated through security education, inspection, and communication.
- Adequate investment and a reasonable level of control should be maintained for security.
- Security requirements according to law and contract should be fulfilled.
- Mutually cooperate with partners and continuously improve the security system to ensure that the entire supply chain maintains the same level of security.